Walter Reed Army Medical Center Awards Public Communications Support Contract

XIO Strategies joins forces with Occoquan Crew Technologies to support Warrior Care

MCLEAN, VIRGINIA – XIO Strategies today announced it has begun work on a marketing and change management contract with the Walter Reed Army Medical Center effective October 1, 2007. XIO, together with its partner Occoquan Crew Technologies, is developing a change management initiative that includes promoting the Medical Center's emerging health care hospitality program, assisting with public communications, as well as developing internal communications and recognition programs, all in support of the institution's goal of improving customer service and the patient care experience.

"By working with the team at the Walter Reed Army Medical Center to understand their communications goals it is clear that they have the dedication to achieve their mission of improving Warrior Care. It is a privilege for us to contribute to this effort," said Jesus Verdejo, President and CEO of Occoquan Crew Technologies.

"It is an honor to be working with the Walter Reed Army Medical Center," added Mary Ann Wagner, President of XIO Strategies. "We are fortunate for the teamwork and commitment that went into winning this award and are delighted to support the mission of this renowned institution."
